5 次の英文を読んで、設問に答えなさい。

A man came home from work late. He was tired and got angry because he found his 5-year-old son waiting for him at the door.

“Daddy, may I ask you a question?”

“You should be in bed! What is it?” replied the man.

“Daddy, how much money do you make an hour?”

“Why are you asking me that? It’s none of your business!” the angry man said.

“I just want to know. Please tell me. How much do you make an hour?” asked the little boy.

“If you must know, I make $20 an hour.”

“Oh,” the little boy replied with his head down.

He looked up and said, “Daddy, may I borrow $10, please?”

The father got even angrier. “Is that why you wanted to know how much money I make? So you can get some to buy a *silly little toy or something? Go to your room and go to bed. I work long, hard hours every day and I don’t want to waste my money.”

The little boy quietly went to his room and shut the door.

The man thought about the little boy’s questioning, and then he sat down and started to *get even madder. “Why did he ask such questions? Why was he so selfish?”

After a while, the man calmed down, and started to think he may have been a little hard on his son. Maybe there was something he really needed to buy with that $10 and he really didn’t ask for money very often. The man went to the little boy’s room and opened the door.

“Are you asleep?” he asked.

“No, Daddy, I’m awake,” replied the boy.

“I’ve been thinking, maybe I was too hard on you earlier.” said the man. “I’m sorry. It’s been a long day and I *took my anger out on you. Here’s that $10 you wanted.”

The little boy sat straight up with a smile. “Oh, thank you, Daddy!” he *yelled. Then he reached under his pillow and pulled out some more crushed bills. The man started to get angry again because he saw the boy already had *plenty of money.

① The little boy slowly counted out his money, then looked up at his father.

“Why did you want more money if you already had some?” the father *complained.

“Because I didn’t have enough, but now I do,” the little boy replied.

“Daddy, I have $20 now. Can I buy an hour of your time? Please come home early tomorrow. I want to have dinner with you.”

② The father was crushed and he put his arms around his little son.

次の会話文は、土曜の午後にナナ(Nana)とジョン(John)が教室で宿題をしながら話しているときの会話文である。会話文と円グラフを読んで、設問に答えなさい。

【What Students Do on Weekends】

John: What's that?

Nana: It's *a pie chart from our class report. We asked everyone how they usually spend their weekends.

John: Oh, interesting. What are the choices?

Nana: Let's see... watching TV, playing sports, going out with friends, studying, sleeping, and shopping.

John: Which one was the most popular?

Nana: Watching TV. I guess students like to relax after a long week.

John: That makes sense. What about playing sports?

Nana: It was very popular, too. A lot of people play soccer or join the basketball club.

John: Did anyone choose studying?

Nana: Some did. More than I expected. Especially before tests.

John: And what about you? What do you usually do?

Nana: I usually go shopping with my family.

John : I like shopping on weekends, too. I bought new shoes last Saturday.

Nana: Really? I didn't know that. Oh, some students just want to sleep! That was actually more popular than shopping.

John : I can understand that, too.

Nana: It's fun to see how (1) everyone is. But I think it's also nice to just rest sometimes.

John : True. Anyway, I'm going out with my friends now. See you later!
